

The Nitty Gritty (5 points each)

1. You burn 5.44 calories walking up these stairs
2. The nipple of knowledge (yes, we're serious)
3. Our first zero waste building on campus
4. A replica of the Mars Rover
5. The largest academic collection of meteors and meteorites
6. There aren't actually tropical birds in this building, but it sure does sound like it
7. ASU's version of a 'wildcat'
8. This microscope can picture individual atoms
9. The upside down pyramid building
10. The building where the President of ASU's office is located
11. The only place in Tempe where you can get a large cold brew/iced coffee for $2.43
12. Petrified wood
13. The second largest academic collection of meteorites
14. The haunted room at Casey's
15. This coffee shop has a full on lab for testing new coffees
16. Take a selfie with your lab tour guide (on Thursday or Saturday) at the end of the tour

Places/Things (2 points each)

1. The heart of Civil Engineering on campus
2. The first building on campus
3. The secret garden (yes, still serious, that's its name)
4. Valley Metro's Lightrail
5. The mermaid and pearls statue
6. The newest buildings along the Tempe Lake front
7. The suspension bridge over Tempe Town Lake
8. The campus building designed by Frank Lloyd Wright
9. The building coined "the birthday cake building"
10. The original library on campus
11. A fish in Tempe Town Lake
12. The building with a lot of snakes in it
13. A 3D planetarium
14. The four headed horse
15. This bar is home to dueling pianos

Plants (2 points each)

1. An edible plant on campus
2. A Palo Verde tree
3. An orange tree
4. A date palm

5. The Zen Rock Garden
6. The tree that has a swarm of birds in it (you'll KNOW when you see/hear it)

People (2 points each)

1. Find a member of the PSWC Committee that's from Alaska (hint: there's two)
2. Find a member of the PSWC Committee that's in the marching band
3. Find the members of the PSWC Committee who are roommates (OMG, they were roommates)
4. Find a member of the PSWC Committee that's a graduate student (hint: there's also two)
5. Find the tallest member of the PSWC Committee
6. Find the shortest member of the PSWC Committee

Easy Peasy (1 point each)

1. "A" mountain
2. That street with all the college bars and restaurants on it
3. A selfie with our famous Sun Devil, sparky
4. ASU is #1 in the US for what third year in a row?
5. The newly renovated Sun Devil Stadium
6. A docked bike share bike
7. A dockless bike share bike
8. A walk only zone
9. The walkway famous for its new date palms
10. The ASU sign with the university charter
11. Any one of the five Starbucks' on ASU Campus
12. The old Hayden Mill